The daisies on the altar are placed in recognition of Girl Scout Sunday, to mark the founding of Girl Scouts on March 12, 1912 by Juliette “Daisy” Gordon Low. Girl Scout Troop 56 would like to thank First Baptist Church for supporting our troop, especially on Girl Scout Sunday, as they receive their My Promise My Faith recognition. These daisies also acknowledge all past and present Girl Scouts and Girl Scout volunteers in our congregation.

5 Questions to Ask Yourself as We Observe Lent and Prepare for Easter:

1. When I wake up on Resurrection Sunday morning, how will I be different? What am I preparing for?
2. Is there something in my life—a habit, a grudge, a fear, a prejudice, an addiction, an emotional barrier, a form of excess—that keeps me from loving God with my heart, soul, mind, and strength and loving my neighbor as myself? How might I address that over the next 40 days?
3. Lent is a time to listen to God, but sometimes God speaks through others, particularly the poor, oppressed, marginalized, and suffering. To whom should I be listening this season? How can I cultivate a listening posture toward others whose perspective and experiences might differ from my own?
4. Is there a spiritual discipline that I’ve always wanted to try? How might I alter my daily routine to include one of these disciplines?
5. The cycle of death and resurrection is central to the Christian faith. In what ways is that cycle present in my life right now? Where might there be necessary change, suffering, death and decay, and how might new life emerge from those experiences?

Twenty years ago this month, the Cooperative Baptist Fellowship commissioned Gennady and Mina Podgaisky to serve in Kyiv. They established Village of Hope a year later, and their ministry has flourished with Baptists and other Christians in Ukraine.

As you know, our church has been a part of this ministry by sending a mission team there and supporting them financially. First Baptist is collecting funds to help the Ukrainian people. The first funding commitment will be to provide relief to those served by Village of Hope and for local partners of that ministry under the leadership of the Podgaiskys and CBF Global Missions. Make your checks payable to First Baptist marked "Ukraine Relief".
